

"ALL THINGS CONSIDERED"

Reception: Saturday April 14th, 12-2 pm

Refreshments served, free parking in garage across the street.

On Exhibit: April 14 - 27

See how regional artists exploit the creative potential of textiles to create new, exciting and meaningful works. Many of the exhibitors are members of SAQA (Studio Art Quilt Association) Connecticut, a group dedicated to supporting and promoting professional fiber artists and teachers as well as quilters working to develop their fine art skills.

This juried show will be judged by well-known textile artist and "Artrepreneur" Clara Nartey, an award-winning artist who has a keen sense of color and design. Her textile artwork has been exhibited in both solo and group exhibitions across the USA. Recently, she managed SAQA CT's signature exhibition – "Local Color: Inspired by Science", which is traveling to multiple venues throughout 2018.

These stunning layered, stitched visual works are an eye-opener: from its roots as a practical craft, quilting has evolved into an art form in its own right. Don't miss this exhibit!
