FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE September 20, 2016
Contact: Clara Nartey me@ClaraNartey.com www.ClaraNartey.com

LOCAL ARTIST DRAWS WITH A SEWING MACHINE

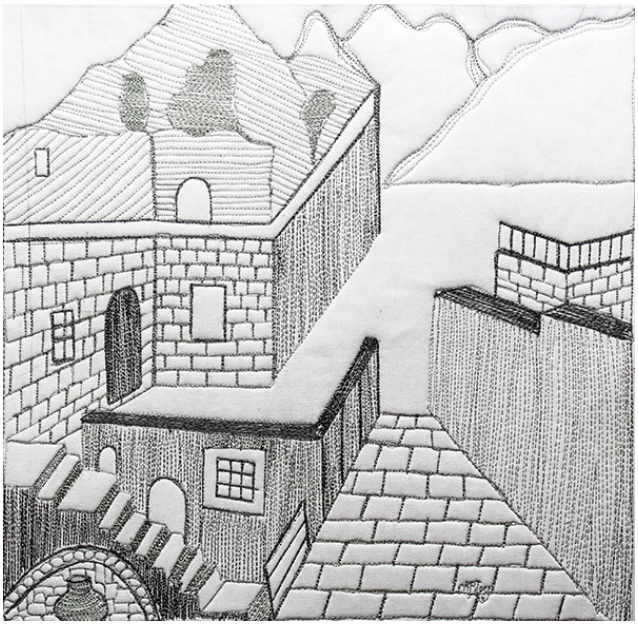

Reflections: Stitched Drawings by Clara Nartey

New Haven, CT – September 20, 2016//- "Reflections – Stitched Drawings by Clara Nartey" will be at Atticus Bookstore and Café, 1082 Chapel St, New Haven from September 12, 2016 to October 23, 2016.

Local working artist, Clara Nartey, draws and colors with thread and hand dyed fabrics. Nartey has an exhibit of her new works titled "Reflections" at Atticus Bookstore and Café. This exhibit is a curation of stitched drawings created with free hand machine stitching, collage and hand dyeing.

Atticus Bookstore and Café, a New Haven staple since 1976, nestled in the Yale community in downtown New Haven, is known for its wide selection of books; great soups, sandwiches and salads. From September 12, there'll also be contemporary art on the menu. Book lovers and patrons to the cafe will enjoy a visual feast of artwork by Artist Clara Nartey.

Nartey will be in the bookstore/ cafe on October 22; from 3:00pm to 4:00pm to meet and greet viewers of the exhibit.

"Courtyard in Cappadocia Caves #1" – Stitch on cotton, 2016

About

Clara Nartey is a local textile artist and writer. Her work has been widely exhibited locally and nationally in museums, art galleries and art centers. She lives and works in West Haven, CT. She creates with both her hands and her words. See her artwork at www.ClaraNartey.com and read her writings on her blog www.ClaraNartey.com/blog

###